Important

- Dogs need to be kept under control and on leads where livestock is present.
- Lambing takes place during the months of April and May. During this time, we ask that dogs, however well behaved, are kept on leads at all times. This is a very stressful time for farmers and sheep alike.

Useful information

- Online shopping can be ordered prior to your arrival from Asda, Tesco or Sainsburys.
- Wooler is your nearest small town (20-minute drive away approx. 11 miles). Here you will find a selection of bakers, butchers, newsagent, Co-op, cafes, an excellent Deli, public houses and restaurants.
- Large supermarkets Asda, Tesco, Morrisons & Aldi can be found in Berwick upon Tweed or Morrisons, Sainsburys, LIDL and Aldi in Alnwick. Both are approximately 1-hour drive. Sainsburys and LIDL are at Kelso – approximately 40 minutes' drive.
- Places to eat in Wooler are The Milan, No 1 Tapas Bar, or The Tankerville Arms. At Milfield, the next village in the opposite direction there is The Red Lion Inn or the Maelmin Café. The Bluebell Inn at Crookham is good, and also The Collingwood Arms at Cornhill.

Special notes & Conditions

- Please note there is limited WIFI (No streaming) supplied by satellite.
- All water is supplied via a spring.
- Dunsdale uses a septic tank, so nothing other than loo roll should ever be put down the toilet.
- In case of cancellation by yourselves the full amount is due unless the dates are re-let, in which case only the deposit is forfeit. We therefore strongly suggest that you take out insurance.
- Due to the remoteness of Dunsdale it is occasionally impossible to get safe access in deep snow, in this case a refund will be given, or an alternative date offered.
- Well behaved dogs and children are very welcome at Dunsdale however, please note that the outside area, whilst for the most part is either walled or fenced, is not fully secure and there is a fast running burn just 50 metres away. We therefore recommend that they are supervised at all times whilst playing outside.
- The adjacent fields can often contain livestock.
- You are asked to observe The Countryside Code at all times. Please see below:

The Countryside Code

Respect other people

- Please respect the local community and other people using the outdoors. Remember your actions can affect people's lives and livelihoods.
- Consider the local community and other people enjoying the outdoors
- Respect the needs of local people and visitors alike—for example, don't block gateways, driveways or other paths with your vehicle.
- When riding a bike or driving a vehicle, slowdown or stop for horses, walkers and farm animals and give them plenty of room. By law, cyclists must give way to walkers and horse-riders on bridleways.
- Co-operate with people at work in the countryside. For example, keep out of the way when farm animals are being gathered or moved and follow directions from the farmer.
- Busy traffic on small country roads can be unpleasant and dangerous to local people, visitors and wildlife – so slowdown and where possible, leave your vehicle at home, consider sharing lifts and use alternatives such as public transport or cycling. For public transport information, phone Traveline on 0871 200 22 33 or visit www.traveline.info.
- Leave gates and property as you find them and follow paths unless wider access is available
- A farmer will normally close gates to keep farm animals in but, may sometimes leave them open so the animals can reach food and water. Leave gates as you find them or follow instructions on signs. When in a group, make sure the last person knows how to leave the gates.
- Follow paths unless wider access is available, such as on open country or registered common land (known as 'Open Access land').
- If you think a sign is illegal or misleading such as a 'Private-No Entry' sign on a public path, contact the local authority.

- Leave machinery and farm animals alone – don't interfere with animals even if you think they're in distress. Try to alert the farmer instead.
- Use gates, stiles or gaps in field boundaries if you can – climbing over walls, hedges and fences can damage them and increase the risk of farm animals escaping.
- Our heritage matters to all of us – be careful not to disturb ruins and historic sites.

Leave no trace of your visit and take your litter home

- Protecting the natural environment means taking special care not to damage, destroy or remove features such as rocks, plants and trees. They provide homes and food for wildlife and add to everybody's enjoyment of the countryside.
- Litter and leftover food doesn't just spoil the beauty of the countryside, it can be dangerous to wildlife and farm animals – so take your litter home with you. Dropping litter and dumping rubbish are criminal offences.
- Fires can be as devastating to wildlife and habitats as they are to people and property – so be careful with naked flames and cigarettes at any time of the year. Sometimes, controlled fires are used to manage vegetation, particularly on heaths and moors between 1st October and 15th April, but if a fire appears to be unattended then report it by calling 999.

Keep dogs under effective control

- When you take your dog into the outdoors, always ensure it does not disturb wildlife, farm animals, horses or other people by keeping it under effective control. This means that you:

Keep your dog on a lead, or keep it in sight at all times Be aware of what it's doing and be confident it will return to you promptly on command

Ensure it does not stray off the path or area where you have a right of access

- Special dog rules may apply in particular situations, so always look out for local signs – for example:
 - Dogs may be banned from certain areas that people use, or there may be restrictions, byelaws or control orders limiting where they can go.
 - The access rights that normally apply to open country and registered common land (known as 'Open Access' land) require dogs to be kept on a short lead between 1 March and 31 July to help protect ground nesting birds and all year round near farm animals.
 - At the coast, there may also be some local restrictions to require dogs to be kept on a short lead during the bird breeding season, and to prevent disturbance to flocks of resting and feeding birds during other times of year.
- It's always good practice (and a legal requirement on 'Open Access' land) to keep your dog on a lead around farm animals and horses, for your own safety and for the welfare of the animals. A farmer may shoot a dog which is attacking or chasing farm animals without being liable to compensate the dog's owner.
- However, if cattle or horses chase you and your dog, it is safer to let your dog off the lead – don't risk getting hurt by trying to protect it. Your dog will be much safer if you let it run away from a farm animal in these circumstances and so will you.

- Everyone knows how unpleasant dog mess is and it can cause infections, so always clean up after your dog and get rid of the mess responsibly – ‘bag it and bin it’. Make sure your dog is wormed regularly to protect it, other animals and people.

Plan ahead and be prepared

- You will get more from your visit if you refer to up-to-date maps or guidebooks and websites before you go. Visit www.gov.uk/natural-england or contact local information centres or libraries for a list of outdoor recreation groups offering advice on specialist activities.
- You are responsible for your own safety and for others in your care – especially children – so be prepared for natural hazards, changes in weather, and, especially if they have young – so give them plenty of other events. Wild animals, farm animals and horses can all behave unpredictably if you get too close space.
- Check weather forecasts before you leave. Conditions can change rapidly especially in the mountains and along the coast, so don't be afraid to turn back. When visiting the coast check tide times at www.ukho.gov.uk/easytide. Don't risk getting cut off by rising tides and take care on slippery rocks and seaweed.

Part of the appeal of the countryside is that you can get away from it all. You may not see anyone for hours, and there are many places without clear mobile phone signals, so let someone else know where you are going and when you expect to return
